

Blithe of Prospect

PERCEPTION PLANNER

QUICK START GUIDE

Blithe of Prospect

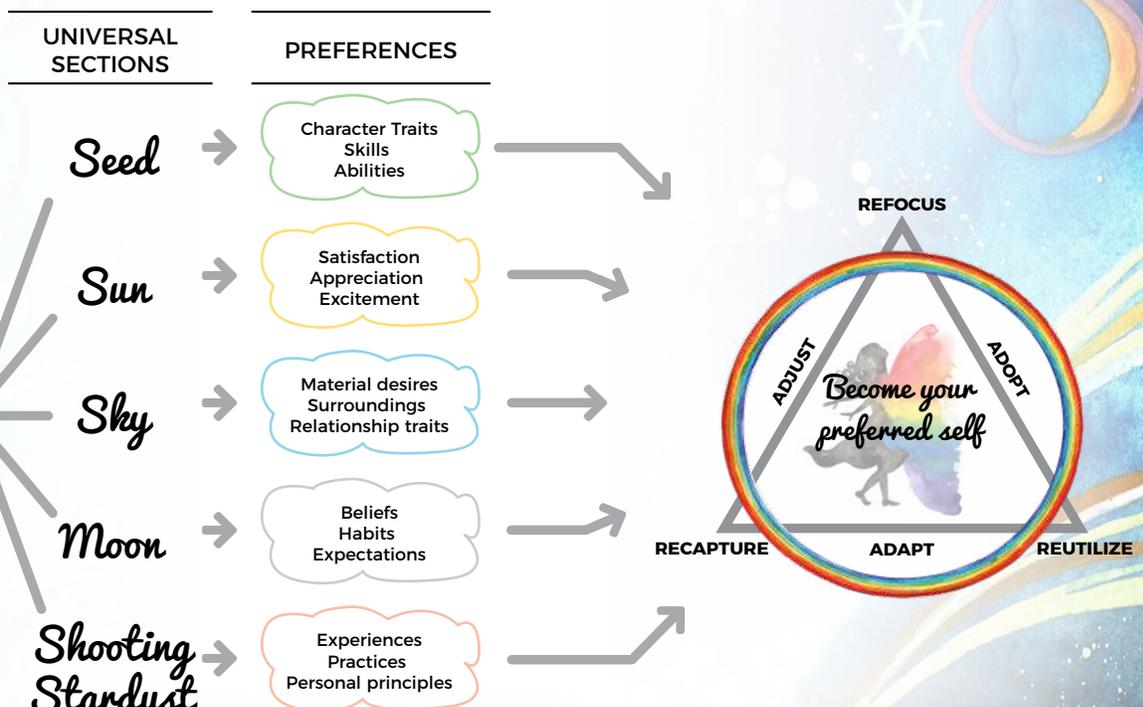

an untroubled and happy mental picture of your future and future self that is not governed by that which is considered realistic, likely, or reasonable.

"The ecstatic light is in your chest, make a decision, trust that decision, and be the light show of your perception."

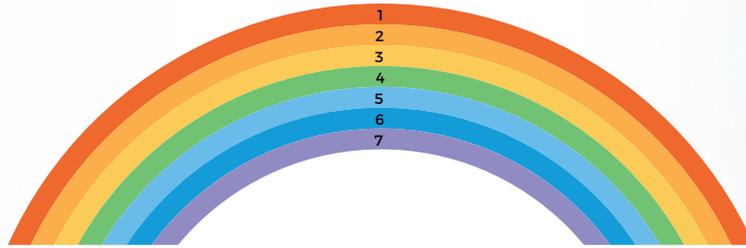

— Cedes Truth

EXAMPLE FOR TRANSFORMATION #1

Intention

To incorporate a system of personal preferences that will transform an individual's perception, emotional stance, and future self using the laws of the Universe.

7 TRANSFORMATIONS ONE BOOK

Each transformation contains 15 preferred desires, allowing you to choose, imagine, and become your highest expression. There are no limits to what you can be, and once you focus and make a decision, the universe will bend corners to be a match to your vibrational frequency. We are vibrational, never at rest, and expanding proportionally to our life experiences. It is time to beam our light towards the vision in our heart and float in the direction of our bliss with no explanation or regret. The Blithe of Prospect Perception Planner will show you the importance of owning the center of your rainbow, by practicing your preferred desires and living your truth.

All rainbows are a complete circle, and we vibrate in the center of its arch at all points in space. The rainbow lovingly reminds us that we are the core of our Universe. No one ever sees the same rainbow, because two people cannot stand at the same point in space and time. Every individual has their perspective of their rainbow, and every angle is valid and equal.

As you use the faculties of your mind to design your blithe of prospect, the story of who you are and what you are capable of becoming will change. Growing up my blithe of prospect helped me to transform my perspective and be excited about the unknown future. In every thought or visualization, I loved who I was becoming, and it began to show on the outside. I started to dress, eat, talk, and walk differently. I even started to imagine the blithe of prospect of other individuals that inspired me or had a negative impact on my life. I leveled them up in my thoughts and made them illuminate in their Universe. My blithe of prospect helped me to understand that I could not transform in the direction of my preferences until I let go of the bitterness or anger towards others. Right now is the time to dream and become our preferred selves. I am a prospector blithely exploring and looking for the opportunity to feel and live my eternal truth. It is time to live yours too!!!
